Federating European Electronics Ecosystems for Competitive Electronics Industries

In collaboration with

Electronic Components and Systems

(ECS) are one of the pillars of the Digital Europe Program 2021-2027 of the European Commission that is planning an investment of 9.2 Billion Euro in the next seven years.

In Italy, digital technologies are part of the Piano Nazionale della Ricerca (PNR), edited by MUR, and in the Piano Nazionale di Ripresa e Resilienza (PNRR), but also of the activities of the new Ministries for the Technological Innovation and Digitalization and for the Ecological Transition. ECSEL Italy has organized for May 19, starting at 9:30 a.m. a virtual workshop on the research and innovation programs for ECS, in order to give updated information on the funding opportunities for research and innovation activities in this field.

Preliminary program

- Italy achievements in ECSEL
- After ECSEL: KDT JU in Horizon Europe
- SRIA 2021: a joint roadmap for ECS
- Functional Electronics and 5E Meta Roadmap
- MIUR and MISE approach to R&I for ECS
- Contributions by ECSEL Austria and Sweden
- Presentations by the Ministries of Digitalization and Ecological Transition

Registration: participation is free, but registration is mandatory to access the site, at
